Subject: Craig Womack - reference

Dear Craig,

Sorry for my delayed reply. I was very busy during this time and your e-mail deserves great care to answer in English.
I appreciate your e-mail and I am glad to reply you.

When I received information about your departure from HT, I send you e-mail, but I think it was sent after your ultimate days, now I am happy reach you because we have a mutual respect for our personalities and I now have your personal address to meet you in a future time. I am sure we will miss your style of working together. I think that your nice background will help you easily to meet a new pleasant work experience. About your website, do not hesitate to use Linea in reference and myself. Is a pleasant for me to help you. If you think that our past relations will help you to strengthen your curriculum, you have my permission to use this reference.

My respect for you is excellent and I hope in next future to cooperate together in a new business. For me what is to come when you will be welcome in Italy, please keep me updated on the events of your planning, and your life.
Best regards from me and Anna.

Gianni
