

When I was working for Craig as the CFO of both Smith & Hawken and Gazoontite, I quickly learned that Craig is a strong leader that possesses the ability to gain respect from his peers and employees alike. The complexity of the financial dynamics in both organizations were challenging and Craig had the innate ability to not only listen and understand the issues at hand but to strategically think several steps ahead.

What impressed me the most about working with Craig is his integrity and Honesty. He is a great mentor and role model and I certainly hope that I will have the opportunity to work with him again.
